

Hailing from New York and born of an American mother and Russian father, Sofia Darovskikh, aka PhiloSofie, was exposed to many different types of musical genres. She counts Stevie Wonder, Joni Mitchell, Ella Fitzgerald, Gorillaz and John Mayer as some of her earliest influences. PhiloSofie attended Kuopio Yhteiskoulun Musiikkilukio, the High School of Music and Dance of Finland.

PhiloSofie is presently working on a new EP due to be released in the late spring of 2020.

Collaborative projects include:

- Songwriter and vocalist for songs “Do My thing”, “Deja Vu”, and “Good Care” with producer Lucian. Songs featured on Cloudkid and Chill Nation channels achieving over 3+ million combined views on YouTube.
- Songwriter and vocalist for “Midnight Cruise” with LGTGR and GAB for ChillYourMind popular blog and record label. “Midnight Cruise” streamed over 2 million times on Spotify.
- Songwriter and vocalist for “Find a Way” with producer Mike Vallas. “Find a Way” featured on Official ESL One Mumbai Soundtrack.
- Worked with Big Top Amsterdam (Record Label founded by Bakermat) to create “Lifeline” with producer ZaZa.

- Worked with artist Shoffy of Indie-Pop Records to create “Direction”.
- Featured Artist in '99 Neighbors of Nice Work/Warner Records 2018-present. Featured lyrics and vocalist “F*ck No” single released by Nice Works/ Warner Records.
- Worked with members of collective '99 Neighbors to create debut album titled “Television”. Songwriter and vocalist for “Lock N Key”. Featured lyrics and vocals on “Damage” and “Fly”
- Worked with Indaba Music, Brooklyn New York. Wrote and recorded vocals in Brooklyn NY to be used in sample library for Ample Music